Step into this beautifully designed three-storey mews home, and you'll instantly appreciate the space, light, and quality it offers. Newly built and thoughtfully laid out, this modern three-bedroom property is perfect for anyone seeking a stylish, low-maintenance home in a peaceful yet well-connected setting.

From the moment you walk in, the open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area sets the tone—bright, inviting, and perfect for modern living. With integrated appliances including an oven, gas hob, and fridge freezer, the kitchen is ready for you to cook, entertain, or simply enjoy your morning coffee. Patio doors open directly onto the garden, offering a seamless indoor-outdoor flow and a great space for summer evenings or weekend get-togethers.

Upstairs, bedrooms two and three are both generous in size—ideal for family, guests, or even a home office—while the sleek family bathroom is just across the landing. But it's the top floor that really impresses: an entire level dedicated to the master suite, filled with natural light from the Velux windows, creating a calm and private retreat.

Outside, you'll find two parking spaces conveniently located to the side of the property, along with private gated access to the rear garden—both practical and secure.

One of the home's standout features is its setting. It overlooks a lovely stretch of open green space, offering a true sense of tranquility and openness. And yet, you're just a short distance from local shops, schools, and everyday essentials. The town centre is easily accessible, along with excellent transport links that make commuting simple and convenient.

Whether you're upsizing, relocating, or looking for a fresh start in a modern home that's ready to move into, this property delivers on every front. Stylish, spacious, and superbly located—it's the kind of home that doesn't come along often.
