Situation

This immaculately presented property for rent has an abundance of space and character. The property enjoys a semi-rural location close to Renishaw Hall and a host of other local amenities. With a brand new contemporary dining kitchen and utility room overlooking the south facing garden this property ticks all the boxes. There is also off street parking which is a rare luxury in the rental market in the area. Upstairs there are two good sized bedrooms and a further loft room accessible via staircase that can easily be used as additional living accommodation or an office space etc. In addition, the property boasts a substantial cellar space that is perfect for storage. Viewing is highly recommended in order to appreciate the accommodation on offer. Call Welcome Homes to arrange a viewing. Deposit and references will be required.
