Situation

A proper step up from your typical house share.
This modern double room with its own private en-suite is part of a beautifully finished property designed with comfort and practicality in mind. No sharing bathrooms, no waiting around — just your own space, done properly.
The room is bright, well-proportioned and fully furnished, making it ideal for working professionals looking for somewhere clean, modern and easy to live in. The en-suite is finished to a high standard, giving you that added level of privacy and convenience that makes all the difference day-to-day.
The rest of the house doesn't disappoint either. There's a large, well-equipped kitchen and communal living area, perfect for cooking, relaxing or socialising, along with a well-maintained garden for when you want a bit of fresh air.
Everything is kept simple with all bills included — council tax, utilities and high-speed broadband — so you know exactly where you stand each month with no surprises.
Set in the popular area of Sprotbrough, the property offers a quieter, more premium location while still being within easy reach of Doncaster and key transport links.
